

Please keep the no call list, I'm tired of getting calls at all hours of the day and night including week-ends. I also think the charitable organizations should be on that list as well.